3 DADS WALKING

Andy Airey, Mike Palmer and Tim Owen - known as 3 Dads Walking - have also raised over £1m for charity Papyrus.

Three ordinary dads who lost young daughters to suicide are on an extraordinary journey to help spare other families the agony of losing a child.

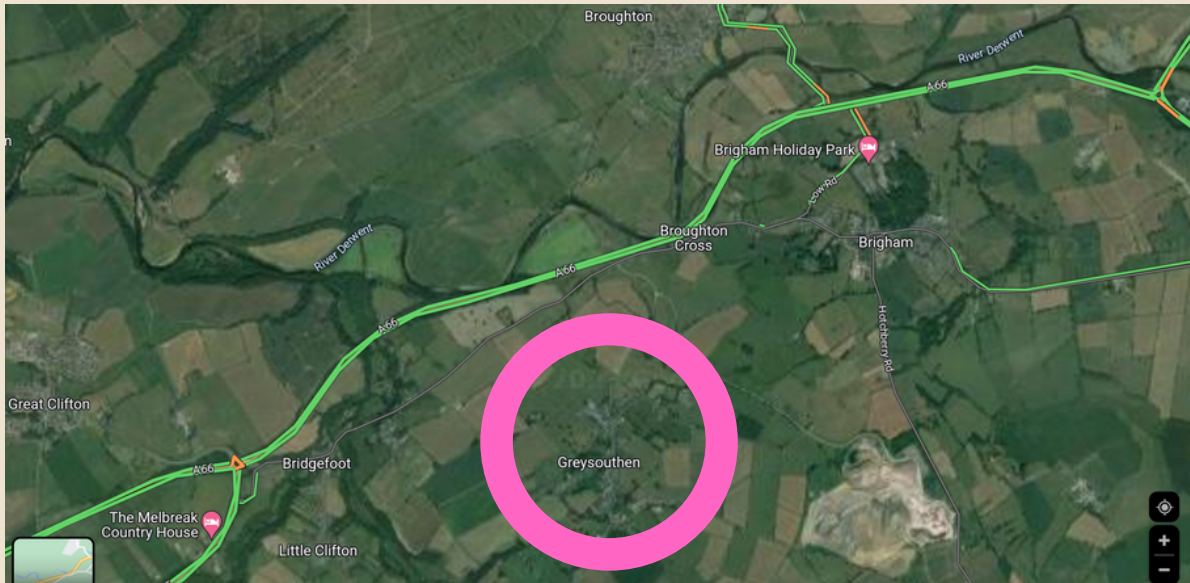

The men, who did not previously know each other, in 2021 walked over 300 miles in memory of our daughters, Sophie, Beth and Emily, who all took their own lives.

In 2022 they walked between the parliaments of the 4 nations to highlight the help PAPYRUS can offer across the UK. Part of this mission was also to get suicide awareness on the national curriculum

They continue to raise awareness of talking about suicide prevention and the work of PAPYRUS Prevention of Young Suicide.
